Company Description

Farming Hope is a nonprofit farm-to-table culinary job training program that fosters community leaders in the food system. We offer transitional employment to people in our community who are facing barriers to employment, primarily to those who have formerly experienced homelessness or incarceration. Apprentices gain a variety of skills through our garden training program in the Western Addition, our meal distribution hub (Refettorio) in Civic Center, and at Manny's restaurant in the Mission. Manny's is home to Farming Hope's social enterprise restaurant space. Manny's is a space that encourages and engages the community both civically and politically through a plethora of events. This includes civic and arts related programming put on by the Manny's team, as well as offering the space to local nonprofits, activists and community leaders.

Job Description

Working with Farming Hope provides you with an elevated experience, a rare opportunity to be a part of something larger and more impactful in a cafe setting. Our staff has the ability to support our Apprentices' employment journey and overall mission by being strong ambassadors of Farming Hope's mission. You will be assisting patrons with their experience, handling payment transactions, bussing tables, keeping up with cleanliness standards, and working to create a welcoming environment. We will be striving to create and maintain a space where our neighbors, diners, event go-ers, and team members feel safe, attended to, and taken care of.

Are you excited to be a part of a team that does more than solely serve the patrons of our establishment? Do you get energized by working with a team to bring strength and prosperity to your community? Joining Farming Hope will give you the ability to empower yourself and others within the food industry. The position is part time, 3-6 days a week, expected hours between 10:00am-9:30pm divided between morning and evening shifts. Weekend preference is desired. These shifts can be flexible depending on availability.

You and Your Responsibilities

- Handling money and card transactions, with TOAST (Point of Sale System)
- Learning about coffee, tasting a lot of it, and perfecting your barista skills
- Menu knowledge and the ability to get patrons excited about our culinary offerings
- Being kind, welcoming, and accommodating to all patrons
- Good at balancing and multitasking, working fast and on your feet
- Ability to stay calm and focused under pressure
- Keeping up with cleanliness standards and encouraging your teammates to do the same
- Helping to create a lively and fun atmosphere for staff and patrons
- Being a positive ambassador for Farming Hope & Manny's alike
- Being yourself, bringing your personality and enthusiasm to the space and to our team

To Apply

Send your cover letter and resume to hire@farminghope.org, along with any questions.

Farming Hope is an equal opportunity employer. We enthusiastically accept our responsibility to make employment decisions without regard to race, religious creed, color, age, sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, religion, marital status, medical condition as defined under State law, disability, military service, pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions or any other classification protected by federal, state, and/or local laws and ordinances.

At Farming Hope we have a clear vision to be a place where a diverse mix of talented people are able to learn, teach, and grow. Diversity is more than a commitment at Farming Hope—it is necessary to advance equity and inclusion for the Apprentices in our training program and our diners in the community.
